

The Giddings News

December 5, 1941

Archie Smith, formerly of Giddings when a lad, called on the editor Friday. He was elected County Treasurer of Travis County last election over several opponents and says he is getting along fine. He has come out in other ways than growing tall since leaving here. His parents are now at Llano where his dad is section foreman.