

The Giddings News

September 15, 1950

Ledbetter Boy Hurt

Lyndon Sommers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Sommers of Ledbetter, was released from Lee Memorial Hospital Wednesday after receiving treatments for injuries sustained in an accident at the Sommers home.

The child was hurt when a barn door fell on him Monday, seriously hurting the child's head. He responded well to treatment, however.

He was kept under observation at the hospital for possible internal injuries until Wednesday morning.