

The Giddings News

June 6, 1924

BUSINESS CHANGES.

The Johnson barber shop changed hands last Friday, Mr. Spiller of Spring having purchased the fixtures and will continue the business at the same location. Mr. and Mrs. Spiller have moved into the residence next to the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Meyer has sold her photograph gallery and residence to Messers Chas. Brady of Round Rock and Arthur Balke of Georgetown. They will take possession of the property about July 1. Some other changes in business in Giddings are under consideration.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having purchased the Johnson barber shop, I shall improve same and continue it under the name "Corner Barber Shop." I shall give the best of service and solicit a share of your patronage. I am a barber of ten year's experience and cater to the best in the trade. Women's and Children's work receive my especial attention. As to the men, if you are hard to please, come around.

W. M. SPILLER.