Brown O. Spivey
Joins Lions Club

At the regular luncheon of the Lions Club Tuesday noon, Brown O. Spivey, county agent, was taken up as a member of the Giddings Lions Club.

This brings the membership up to 28.

Tuesday, October 27, was set as the date for the Ladies night and the club decided to enter a candidate for the Queen of the Lee County Fair and also to have a float in the Fair parade Thursday afternoon October 16, 1953.

President Spitzenberger appointed the following committee to select the candidate for the Queen of the Fair:

Wm. L. Pratho, Monroe Hannes, and Durwood Fuchs.

The following were appointed as the float committee:

W. O. Keaghey, P. H. Knippa, Jr. and Brown O. Spivey.
