

The Giddings News

October 24, 1941

Freak Egg.

L. E. (McNeill) Stepney brought a chicken egg to the News office, that was in two distinct colors. The shell was about evenly divided, each in a color, blue and yellow. The egg was small sized and quite heavy. The woman said that some former eggs that were freakish had hatched chicks that were totally blind.