CALL WAS DECLINED

The call extended to Prof. Hy. W. Stroebel, principal of Immanuel Lutheran School, by the Salem Lutheran Church of Malone, Texas, which came up for consideration at the regular meeting of the church Sunday night, was declined.

The end of the present school term will mark the completion of twenty years of teaching in the local Christian Day School for Mr. Stroebel and the unanimous vote by the congregation to retain him in his present position is a recognition of his faithful work during these many years.
