Awarded Two Degrees

ANDREW W. STROEBEL

Andrew W. Stroebel, son of Rev. H. A. Stroebel of Lincoln, was awarded the Bachelor of Laws degree and also officially received the Bachelor of Arts degree, having completed all requirements for that degree in 1952. He graduated from Giddings High School in 1948 and entered Baylor in the Fall of 1948.

While at Baylor he was a member of Phi Alpha Delta, a National law fraternity and also a member of the Board of Governors of Law School. He also taught in St. Marks Lutheran School for a school year while attending Baylor.

He is scheduled to report for Military Service on September 21st, and after his tour of duty he plans to enter private law practice.
