

MRS L. G. SUEHS HONORED

Mrs. L. G. Suehs was named honoree at a luncheon given in the home of Mrs. James Dixon, Tuesday, March 20.

The table centerpiece was a nest with a cart of eggs with rabbit, drawn by a chicken, since the motif was of the Easter theme, while the card tables, which served as place settings, were decorated with small nests of eggs. The honoree was presented with a crystal olive dish by the hostesses, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Curry, and Mrs. J. F. Stewart.

Ladies present were: Mrs. John F. Stewart, Mrs. F. B. Curry, Mrs. J. W. Dixon, Mrs. W. D. Moody, Mrs. Bill Pieratt, Mrs. W. O. Keaghey, Mrs. Emmett Hannes, Mrs. Horace Willard, Mrs. Bob Pieratt, Mrs. L. G. Suehs, Mrs. Leighton Snow, Mrs. August Wolf, Mrs. William Pratho, Mrs. Bob Falke.

The occasion was Mrs. Suehs' departure on April 1 to Pensacola, Florida, where she will join her husband, former Giddings dentist, who is stationed there as a member of the dental corps.
