Symmank Will Show Cattle Next Tuesday

Douglas Symmank will show his prize-winning registered Guernsey heifer and his registered Holstein heifer which he won at the 1950 Houston Fat Stock Show at the home of his father, O. W. (Bill) Symmank from 4 to 6 p. m. next Tuesday Feb. 21.

Douglas invites all interested parties to see his prize dairy animals of which he is justly proud.

Doug, Lone Star Farmer of the Giddings FFA chapter, was awarded the Holstein heifer by the Carnation Milk Company of being runner-up in this class of Houston in the Junior Livestock Show. Doug showed his milking contest Guernsey heifer sponsored by Bill Williams, Houston Fat Stock Show at the home of his father, O. W. (Bill) Symmank from 4 to 6 p. m. next Tuesday Feb. 21.

she was the reserve champion in the Junior Dairy Show.

In the top ten boys competing for the Cowling Texas A&M Scholarship, Doug placed second, making him the first alternate for this scholarship. For he was awarded this select Holstein heifer flown from the Carnation Farm in Seattle, Wash., and presented to him at a banquet in Houston last week. The banquet was for all those having dairy heifers along with their business men-sponsors of Houston and vocational agriculture teachers and county agents. Officials of the Houston show were present along with celebrities.
