Brenham Maifest Boosters Due Here Next Thursday

The annual Brenham Maifest Booster group will arrive May 4 in Giddings at 9:40 a. m. and will be here until 10:15 a. m. There will be two buses and fifteen passenger car loads of Brenhamites making the trip.

The group will be met by the Giddings High School Band. A short program will follow which will feature music by both the Brenham High School and the Giddings High School Bands.

The trip includes stops in Somerville, Caldwell, Dime Box, Giddings, LaGrange, Carmine, Burton, Bellville, Hempstead, Navasota, and Washington. A barbecued chicken dinner will be prepared in Bellville for the delegation.

The visit is part of the annual goodwill tour sponsored by the Brenham Chamber of Commerce and is conducted to draw attention to the Brenham Maifest celebration which is one of the oldest celebrations in Texas. The Maifest will be held on May 12 and 13 this year.

Giddings is being represented in the Maifest by Miss Eola Nell Tate.
