

The Giddings News

March 11, 1932

JOHN H. TATE
FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

This issue of the Giddings News carries the announcement of Hon. John H. Tate for District Judge of the 21st Judicial District, composed of Bastrop, Burleson, Washington and Lee Counties. Judge Tate was county judge of Lee County for 18 years, and since retiring from the office, has practiced law in Giddings. He is an able jurist, fully capable of serving as district judge in keeping with the dignity of the office and the News bespeaks a large vote for him. He will appreciate all support and influence given him and, if elected, it is an assured fact that his service will be fair and impartial to all alike. The News commends him to the citizens of the district.