

The Giddings Star

July 5, 1940

TWO BOYS HURT IN TRUCK WRECK NEAR HILLS

Wednesday morning while Mr. M. Y. Tate drove the Humble Oil Truck toward Paige, he saw a passenger car coming toward him occupied by two young men, both of whom were apparently sleeping.

Mr. Tate stated that he drove to the side as far as he could to avoid a collision, but the passenger car struck him causing the heavy oil truck to overturn. Both the truck and the car were badly damaged, but Mr. Tate escaped with a few minor scratches.

Homer Nagel of Monahans, the driver of the car, received a broken arm, the arm being broken at several places and badly fractured according to Dr. S. W. Manizel who took the patient to the hospital at Brenham. The other young man who is the owner of the passenger car and whose name was not learned was not seriously injured. The young men were on the way to Houston.