

The Giddings News

July 22, 1932

MOLASSES MILL OPENED

The Giddings molasses mill opened yesterday (Thursday) for the season's run. It will be operated by Otto Aschenbeck and Rudy Tempel and will be in operation every day from now on, that is, when cane is brought. The acreage planted to molasses cane was heavy this year, but the hot dry weather of late has checked the production. A good rain would increase the yield of juice.