

The Giddings Star

June 18, 1953

Receives Athletic Letters at Seminary

Charles Ray Symmank received letters in Basketball and Tennis at a recent Athletic Banquet at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo.

Shorty was also athletic manager of his dormitory which won the intramural athletic championship of the Seminary.

Marvin Tschatschula won the tennis championship, and Leo Symmank won the championship in archery. Shorty was coached in tennis by the famous Ted Drewes who won the St. Louis tennis tournament for 13 years in succession.