

The Giddings News

June 6, 1924

Business Changes

John Gruetzner has sold the Giddings Paint Shop to Paul Tschatschula and Ernst Mutschink; two industrious young men, who will continue the business at the same place, besides an oil station and accessory department in connection. John will return to farm work at Loebau later in the year, but will remain in town a while yet.