

The Giddings News

June 22, 1923

Auto Overturned

An auto occupied by John Urban's family and driven by one of his boys, overturned as it was coming down the long hill just out of town on the La Grange road. A spindle gave way and the car turned bottom upwards into a ditch, but on account of the top being sufficiently strong to support the weight, the occupants were not injured. It was a narrow escape, but fortunately no one was injured.