

The Giddings News

June 26, 1931

CORN SHORT

D. Volkers and son Henry returned Saturday from a trip to Woodsboro, below Victoria, bringing back with them Adolph Volkers who was recently injured while unloading iron for Ed. Aftman's construction company. Adolph can barely walk on crutches. They report the corn crop in the section through which they passed, as about burned up and almost a total failure from Giddings south the entire distance they traveled.

— 0 —