

The Giddings News

February 14, 1941

LEXINGTON BANK
CASHIER RESIGNS

Otho Warren, who has been cashier of the Lexington bank since March 1, 1935 and who had previously filled several positions in the bank, has resigned to accept the cashier-ship of the bank at Rapesville, near Lubbock. The position is a promotion for Otho and his many friends wish him the best of success. He was in Giddings last week buying a new automobile.