

The Giddings News

January 30, 1931

MUCH STEALING

Jack (Marshall) Lovings was placed in jail last week for stealing chickens from Addie Lovings on the J. E. Sommer farm in Beat Five. He had sold twenty head at Carmine. Paul Wendler's store at Lincoln was entered a few nights ago and three sacks of sugar were missing, besides the account register which contained all accounts. Entrance was gained through a side door where holes were bored with a brace and bit around the lock, then the lock was pushed back and out.