Leslie D. Williams Asks for Re-Election As District Judge, 21st Judicial District

District Judge Leslie D. Williams of Brenham has authorized The Star to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of District Judge of the 21st Judicial District.

His announcement follows:

To The Voters of Lee County, Texas:

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of District Judge of the 21st Judicial District of Texas, subject to the action of the July Democratic Primary.

It has been a pleasure to serve you in this capacity for the past four years. I have endeavored to conduct the affairs of the Court in a dignified manner, as befits a Court of this rank, and pledge every effort to that end in the future.

I wish to thank all of the Court's officers and the jurors for their cooperation in the handling of the business of the court. I assure you that I will continue to dispatch the business of the Court with promptness and consideration.

Very respectfully,
Leslie D. Williams
