

The Giddings Star

September 15, 1955

MISS DELOIS WILSON is one of the three new teachers at Giddings Public School this year.

Miss Wilson, a native of Houston is the daughter of Mrs. J. H. Hearron of Houston and L. B. Wilson of Golden Acres, Texas. A graduate of Galena Park High School, Miss Wilson attended Alibene Christian College from where she will receive her Bachelor's Degree in Music in October.

Her duties at GHS include Elementary School Music grades three through six; seventh and eighth grade Chorus; and High School Chorus. "I hope that the music in the Giddings school will enrich the lives of the people in this community," Miss Wilson states.

While in college, Miss Wilson was Amneris in the Opera, "Aida", a member of the Madrigal Singers, A Cappella Chorus, W Club, C.S.O., A.C.C. Symphony Orchestra, and Cadettes.
