

Mrs. A. F. Michalk And Sister Hurt In Auto Accident

Miss Eleanore Woelfel, R. N. of Galveston and Mrs. Michalk of Fedor, wife of Rev. A. F. Michalk, were on their way to Bovina, Texas, where they were to be joined by their brother, Ernest Woelfel, who was to accompany them to the bedside of their father, Nick Woelfel, who is ill in a hospital at Tacoma, Washington.

Tuesday night of last week while they were driving on a wet pavement near Littlefield, Texas, one of their tires went flat, which caused the car to swerve and strike the soft shoulder of the highway overturning several times.

Mrs. Michalk who was thrown thru the top of the car into a corn field suffered a slight concussion of the brain, and both received numerous cuts and bruises and both suffered from shock. They were taken to the hospital for treatment from which they were released Friday.

Mrs. Michalk is at present convalescing at her brother's home at Bovina, while Miss Woelfel went on by train to Washington. Their car was completely demolished.
