

The Giddings News

August 29, 1924

Walter Woelfel of Lamesa is visiting home folks here. He said crops in his section will be spotted on account of the grasshoppers having eaten much of the cotton. Some people became discouraged and left their crops. Walter's cotton crop of 200 acres was reduced to 50 acres by the grasshoppers.