

J. ALTON YORK

J. Alton York Announces for District Attorney

J. Alton York of Caldwell this week announced his candidacy for the office of District Attorney for the 21st Judicial District composed of Bastrop, Burleson, Lee, and Washington counties.

Mr. York made the following statement:

"I feel that I am well qualified by experience and training, to fulfill the duties of this important office. I received my education at the University of Texas, and have been engaged in the practice of law for 22 years. During this time I served as County Attorney of Lee County for four years, and State Senator of this District for eight years.