

The Giddings News

November 21, 1941

OLLIE C. YORK INJURED

Ollie C. York was driving a team of horses to a wagon on the road Monday when the doubletree broke. The team became frightened and he tried to guide to a fence and the wagon turning over, breaking one arm, cutting a gash in his forehead and injuring one leg, but it was not broken. A speedy improvement for him is wished.