

The Giddings News

May 6, 1932

JUST RIGHT

Carl E. Zoch, hustling farmer on Route 5, Giddings, was in paying his subscription to the News after the rain and said the rain was just right and hit him exactly in time. He had plowed 40 acres of cotton, and what cotton he had replanted, was all up. He planted during the dry weather and did not wait for the rain to plant. It is hard to get ahead of Lee County farmers.