

The Giddings News

April 1, 1932

—o—
BAD HAIL AT FEDOR

Gus. Zschech was in from Fedor and reported that the hail was severe there Wednesday about 4 p. m. He lost 18 window panes and the highest he had heard of was Herman Urban's house which lost 20 panes. The hail stones would bounce when they hit the ground and they were of good size. The hail was followed by a good rain which made the branches flow.