

The Giddings Star

February 2, 1956

Monroe Zschech
Enters Race for Co.
Commissioner, Pct. 1

Monroe Zschech of Giddings has authorized The Star to announce his candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Precinct 1, Lee County, subject to the action of the voters in the Democratic Primary in July.

Mr. Zschech is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Zschech of Fedor. He is married to the former Laura Dube of Fedor. They have two children; Alan, 8, and Mary Ann, 5. The Zschechs are members of Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Mr. Zschech's announcement follows:

To The Voters of Precinct
No. One, Lee County, Texas:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. One, Lee County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries. In making this announcement I feel that I am well qualified for the office in that I have made a study of County Government, more especially as it affects the Commissioner's office, and also have spent the past eleven years in the employment of Gulf and Mustang Tractor Companies, in the service department, repairing all types of road machinery, which experience will save you many dollars as I can expertly
