

The Giddings News

August 1, 1941

BASTROP CAMP SURVEYED

A corps of about 50 men is at work surveying a site for the proposed army camp between Bastrop and Elgin to cost 22½ million dollars. It is not certain whether the camp will be built, as that depends on developments and action by Congress.