

The Giddings News

February 6, 1942

CAMP SWIFT

The army camp in Bastrop County is officially named Camp Swift after a deceased native Texan who was a brigadier general in charge of a division in France in World War I. He served in many other places with distinction. He was a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.