

BEAT FIVE LOCALS.

Dr. McLarty and Miss Norene McLarty have returned to Tanglewood after spending Thanksgiving on the farm. We are glad to state that Dr. is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Stanley have returned to Beat Five after spending a week in Burton and Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wood and little daughter, Dorsie Ellen, spent Thanksgiving in Ledbetter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan.

Misses Fannie Nowlin and Norene McLarty entertained their friends at the home of Mrs. McLarty Thanksgiving night. Music and different games were enjoyed by all.

Miss Jessie Bell Thompson who attends school in Giddings, spent Thanksgiving in Beat 5.

The Misses Black of Giddings spent Thanksgiving with their parents on the farm.

Master Bill McClellan and Obie Rost of Ledbetter, spent the week-end in Beat Five with Mr. and Mrs. Connor Wood.

Mr. Brooks has been on the sick list this week.

Little Lillian Dodd lost her finger badly mashed by the closing of the car door.

Mrs. C. M. McLarty spent Monday and Tuesday with Dr. McLarty in Tanglewood.

Miss Annie Ross Teague was a Dime Box visitor last Saturday.

Mr. Claud Norville is visiting in Beat Five.

Mr. Harris Plant and family are moving to Tanglewood this week. We regret very much to have them leave us.

"FRIEND."