Behrnville

On the 9th of this month, Mrs. Mickan of Walburg, returned from a visit to Winchester and Serbin. She had been in the company of widow Anna Jentho, mother of Gottlob and Karl Jentho, who was visiting from West Point. They (Mrs. Jentho and Mrs. Mickan) were taken to the brothers Kalmbach in Behrnville and (from there) were taken to her (Mrs. Jentho's) son, Mr. Gottlieb Jentho, where they were boarded. The brothers Jentho convey their thanks to Mrs. Mickan, together with the brothers Kalmbach, for their kind assistance.

Greetings, F.G.
