

The Giddings News

June 5, 1931

BLUE NEWS

A nice shower of rain fell at Blue last Friday night. It will be of a great benefit to crops, such as corn and cotton, watermelons and all kinds of grains.

The tomato marketers are very busy this week, hauling green tomatoes to market at Lexington, receiving 1½c a lb. This is rather a smaller price than farmers expected but crops were later than usual.

Reporter.