

The Giddings News

July 14, 1950

DIAG LOCALS
Mrs. V. Mutz

Work Progressing
Work on our new highway is progressing nicely in spite of the hot weather. They are past the Yeagua and it should not be too much longer until they will have all the timber and rubbish cleared away.

Personals
Miss Lydia Hutson of Austin spent the week-end in our community visiting relatives.
Master Mike Kilpatrick of San Antonio has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kilpatrick.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Helgren of Elgin spent Saturday night and Sunday in the C. L. Ruthven home.
Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McCright of North Camp Hood visited her mother Saturday night and Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Smith of Pleasant Grove spent a few hours Sunday in our community.
Mrs. M. L. Turner spent the week-end in Manor, in the home of her daughter.
Master Dale Kilpatrick, who underwent an appendectomy in Lee Memorial Hospital last week, is back home doing fine.