

The Giddings News

September 19, 1941

TWO KILLED
NEAR BRENHAM

Sunday morning a drunken driver of an automobile collided with another automobile north of Brenham on the Somerville highway, killing one man and injuring some others. An officer from Brenham was called to the scene and he took his place on the highway to flag down approaching automobiles to prevent them from crashing into the wreckage, but a car came whizzing up the hill, knocked the officer 25 yards and killed him. The officer was trying to save the lives of others and lost his own.