

The Giddings News

June 13, 1941

NEW BRIDGE AT CAMERON

The State Highway Department has appropriated $400,000 for the construction of a new bridge and trestle across the Little River at Cameron. The present bridge and embankment is not sufficient for high water travel and blocks much traffic. The present structures will remain until the new structures are completed a short distance down the river. Little river is a confluence of three rivers and handles an immense volume of water.