4-H Girls Meet

The Carmine 4-H Club girls met last Thursday, Jan. 12, with their sponsor, Miss Christine Behrend.

Maxine Sachs, Eunice Ponicik and Nancy Lee Blackburn were accepted as new members.

The girls discussed the dresses that they were going to make. Plans for their Valentine party were also made.

The meeting then adjourned.

WMS Meets

The Women's Missionary Society met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. T. Kluge with Mrs. Hilda Perkins of Houston as hostess.

Present were Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Kluge, Mesdames A. E. Keilers, L. C. Fuchs, W. E. Kuhn, Alb. Mueller, Hy. Boemer, Julius Jaster, M. L. Zwernemann, and Ned Perkins.

The meeting opened with a prayer and scripture by Rev. Kluge. Several topics were chosen from the Women's Missionary Outlook and discussed.

All officers were re-elected. It was voted to change the meeting day from the third Tuesday in each month to the third Monday.

Mrs. L. C. Fuchs will be the hostess on Feb. 20.

After the meeting, Mrs. Perkins served a delicious lunch.

Buys Tailor Shop

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Fuchs became the new owners of the Carmine Tailor Shop in a deal transacted recently. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ashmore Jr. were the former owners.

R.T.-C. Cubs Win Consolation

The Round Top-Carmine Cubs won the consolation trophy in a basketball tournament at Bellville Saturday. Delvin Jaster was selected as an all-tournament player.

The Cubs lost the first game to Hempstead, defeated Fayetteville in the consolation finals and then defeated Smithville to win consolation.

Girls Win Consolation

The Round Top-Carmine volleyball girls were consolation winners in the annual Blinn College Volleyball Tournament held at the Blinn gymnasium last week.

R.T.-C was defeated by Orchard 19 to 15 in the preliminaries, putting them in the consolation bracket. In the consolation semi-finals R.T.-C. defeated Cypress-Fairbanks 22 to 10. In the finals the R.T.-C. girls defeated Burton in a best two out of three match. The scores were 15-9, 13-15, and 15-0.

Orchard defeated Magnolia to win the tournament.
