Wins Scholarship

Charles Keilers of Round Top and a Carmine 4-H Club boy received the L. E. Cowling Fat Stock Show Award, a $2,500 Scholarship to Texas A&M College, at Houston Friday night.

Young Keilers, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Keilers of near Round Top, received the award for his record in caring for and exhibiting a dairy heifer he caught in the 1949 stock show dairy milking race.

The Scholarship is offered by L. E. Cowling, Houston insurance executive. It was presented at a banquet in a Houston restaurant attended by exhibitors of dairy animals caught in last year's milking race, and the Houston business men who

Returns From Hospital
