

The Giddings News

April 7, 1950

Firemen Elect Officers

The Carmine Fire Department members held their annual meeting for the purpose of electing officers. Re-elected were W. J. Neise as president, A. E. Hoppe as vice-president, H. L. F. Doerr Jr. as secretary-treasurer, and Ilo Ullrich as fire chief. Ray Steinbach was elected assistant fire chief by acclamation, Otto Fuchs was elected Chaplain, Harold Weyand fire marshal, and Fred Schultz, drill master.

The newly acquired tower siren met with everyone's approval.

Numerous other business matters were discussed.