Hempstead Defeats RTC

The Hempstead Bobcats put their skids on Round Top-Carmine's 17 game winning streak on Friday evening when the defending District 70 B champions edged out a 31-29 victory in an overtime period.

The clubs were tied 29-all at the finish of regulation play. When a bucket by the Bobcat's Huey Henson in the extra three minutes made the difference.

Hempstead now leads the conference standing with a 4-0 record while the Cubs are 3-1. The clubs play twice more in top competition.

Walter Kirkpatrick, Bobcat center, tallied 16 points to pace the victory. Graeber of RT-C posted 13 tallies.

Girls Lose in Tournament

The RT-C girls volley ball team lost to Burton last Saturday in the Blinn College sixth annual volley ball tournament held at Marie Heineke Memorial gymnasium last Friday and Saturday.

The Tomball team forfeited their game to RT-C. The RT-C girls defeated Spring Branch but lost to Burton in the semi-finals. Orchard defeated Burton in the finals and Hempstead defeated Moulton for the consolation award.

Eunice Ponick of RT-C was chosen on the All-Tournament team.

Fire Boys Answer Call

The Carmine Fire Department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Loewe last Saturday morning when their house was on fire. The fire which had apparently started from an overheated flue, was put out by neighbors before the fire department arrived.
