CARMINE

By MRS. ELMO NOAK

Friends and relatives honored Miss Anna Dell Berger, bride-elect of R. J. Marth Jr., with a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at the Carmine parish house. Upon arrival, the honoree was presented a white mum corsage. The mothers of the prospective bride and groom were presented corsages of red rose buds. The grooms grandmother was presented a corsage of white mums.

The valentine motif was carried out in the decorations. The centerpiece was a large styrofoam base that held in one corner a large red heart edged in lace. In another corner was a Styrofoam cupid holding two ribbons coming from atop of the large heart. Three smaller red hearts were arranged in front of the cupid, on which were written the names of the bride, the groom, and the date of the wedding. An arrangement of stock and white mums were placed in front of the large heart. Small red paper hearts were used at intervals along the long table.

After the bride-to-be had opened her gifts and expressed her thanks, a buffet lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake, cookies, coffee, and soda water was served. Miss Berger will become the bride of R. J. Marth Jr., on Feb. 20, at 3 p.m. in the Martin Luther Church at Carmine.
