CARMINE

By MRS. ELMO NOAK

Gromatzky Infant Passes

Jean Ann Gromatzky, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin (Sam) Gromatzky, passed away at the Herman hospital in Houston on Wednesday at 7 a. m. She was only 5 days old. She was born at the Herman hospital and weighed only a pound and one-half at birth.

Survivors include her parents of Houston, a sister, Jacqueline, her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Kluge of Carmine and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gromatzky of Priddy. An infant brother preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at the Leon Simank Funeral home in Brenham, Thursday at 3 p. m. with Rev. M. A. Falkenberg of the Faith Lutheran church in Houston officiating. Burial was in Prairie Lea Cemetery.

Attend Career Day

The Senior class of RT-C attended the fourth annual career day at Blinn college on Thursday. Seniors from all of the neighboring high schools were present also. After registration and refreshments, Dr. Thomas M. Spencer, president of Blinn college, spoke to the group. The students were then assigned to guidance groups, in which they were most interested. Lunch was enjoyed at the Blinn college cafeteria. In the afternoon, the Blinn Choral Club entertained the students.
