Kautz Reunion Held Here

On Sunday, June 12, the descendants of Gustav and Alwine Hartfield Kautz assembled here at the Schuetzen Verein hall for their annual family reunion. A sausage and mutton barbecue dinner was served at noon. A short program was presented in the afternoon. W. F. Kautz of Cuero gave the opening scripture readings from 1 John 4:16-21 and Luke 16:19-31. The youngsters sang several songs and rendered a few musical selections. Prizes were given to the oldest member present, Emil Kautz, Taylor; the youngest, Jerry Lee Krebs, Willow Springs; most recently married, Alex Kautz, New Ulm; largest family present, Mrs. Lee Krause, Carmine; and to Mrs. Frieda Kautz of Dallas for having come the greatest distance. All joined in the singing of "Now Thank We All Our God." W. F. Kautz led in prayer and all joined in the Lord's Prayer.

For those who enjoyed dancing, there was music available and a number participated in that pleasure. Others visited and had a most enjoyable time. During the business session conducted by Gus Kautz of Fayetteville, it was decided to meet again next year at the Carmine hall. Gus Kautz of Fayetteville was elected president for the ensuing year; Roland Kautz, Taylor, W. F. Kautz, Cuero vice-presidents; and Miss Ella Kautz, Industry, secretary - treasurer. Three new members were added to the family register during the past year. A lunch of sandwiches, cake, and coffee was served late in the afternoon, after which fond farewells were bid hoping to meet again next year.

Those attending were: Emil Kautz, Roland Kautz and daughter, Yvonne, Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kautz and Patricia, Cuero; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kautz, Elmer Krause, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kautz and sons, Arlington; Mrs. Frieda Kautz, Mrs. Elizabeth Heitmeyer and son, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kautz and son, Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Krause, Miss Dorothea Krause, Lee Krause, Gus Krause, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Leonhardt and
