Senior Class Meets

The senior class of the Round Top-Carmine high school met last week for the purpose of electing class officers for the new school term. Elected were: president, A. C. Schumann; vice president, Weldon Klaus; secretary, Marilyn Graeber; treasurer, Gloria Hackemack; reporter, Maynette Stork; librarians, Corine Reuter and Alvin H. Coufau Jr.

The motto "In ourselves Our Future Lies" was selected. Pink and white were chosen as the class colors and pink and white gladiolus were chosen as the class flowers. The class decided not to have class dues this year. The meeting was then adjourned.

Junior Class Elects Officers

The junior class of the Round Top-Carmine high school met recently to elect their officers. Elected were Ilo Dean Ullrich, president; Harlie Hackemack, vice-president; Joyce Lange, secretary; Reubin Wunderlich, treasurer; Jean Arlys Noak, reporter; and Doris Faye Kiel and Robert Lindsay, librarians. The class voted to pay 75 cents dues per school term.

Kills Coral Snake

Willie Fuchs, who resides about one-fourth mile northwest of Carmine, found a Coral snake near the steps of his home last week. Mr. Fuchs killed the snake and brought it to town to show to friends. This is the second Coral to be found in this vicinity.
