Golden Wedding Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pohl of near here observed their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, October 22, at the Carmine hall, with about 100 relatives and friends attending. Lunch consisting of cakes and sandwiches were served to all present. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake topped with golden numerals "50", centered the table. Mr. and Mrs. Pohl have been residents of this vicinity during their entire married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Leonhardt Sr. also of near here were honored on their golden anniversary on Wednesday, Oct. 26, with about 35 relatives and close neighbors in attendance. A pork barbecue with all the trimmings was served at noon. Five of their seven children were able to attend.

Personals:

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Zapp and son of Houston spent the weekend here with their parents.

Mrs. M. L. Zwernemann, Jimmy and Joan, Mrs. A. E. Keilers, Mrs. Ho Ullrich, and Miss Jean Ariys Noak were Austin visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Pietz and Julia Anna of Austin spent Sunday here with Mrs. Hertha Pietz. Little Julia spent the day here with her grandmother while Mr. and Mrs. Pietz continued on to Huntsville to the Prison Rodeo.

Henry Lee Fuchs, Paul Behnke, and Milton Behnke spent the previous weekend in Beaumont where they took some of Mr. Fuchs' Red Poll cattle to the South Texas Fair. This weekend Mr. Fuchs, B. C. Neutzler, and Edward Lee Moerbe brought the cattle back from Beaumont.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Eichler of Houston spent the weekend here in the L. J. Hoppe home. They were accompanied back by Mrs. Augusta Eichler who had spent some time in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Eichler and family of Shreveport, Louisiana, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyer and daughters, Hempstead, and Miss Elsie Wolle, R. N. of Corpus Christi, were recent visitors here in the Albert Eichler home.
