Zibilski-Fuchs Vows Told
Miss Joyce Louise Zibilski became the bride of Vernon W. Fuchs in a candlelight ceremony on Sunday, Nov. 20, at the Zionville Lutheran Church with the Rev. R. Weber officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zibilski of Zionville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fuchs of Carmine.

The double-ring ceremony was read before the altar adorned with vases of white shasta daisies. Tall white baskets of gladioli and fern decorated the chancel.

John W. Richter, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist who sang, "The Greatest Step in Life."

The bride and groom entered together. She wore a gown of white bridal slipper satin. The fitted bodice had a scalloped waistline, nylon lace scalloped yoke and long, close-fitting lace sleeves which came to a point over the hands. Tiny satin-covered buttons closed the sleeves and the back of her dress. The full skirt fell into folds and extended into a train. A short satin edged peplum fell from her waist. Her shoulder length veil of nylon tulle was adjusted to a satin headpiece and narrow crown of lace and tiny rosebuds. She carried a colonial type bouquet of white carnations and calla glads with satin streamers.

Mrs. Franklin Fuchs, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of ice blue net over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and scalloped edged yoke studded with tiny seed pearls. She carried a nosegay arrangement of pink carnations and net frills.
