

NEWS FROM . . .

CARMINE

By MRS. ELMO H. NOAK

Injures Hand

R. J. Marth Sr. received a severe lacerated right hand when he got it caught in a grinder at the feed mill in Burton where he is employed. He was rushed to a doctor and then to the hospital for medical attention. He is recuperating at his home.

Receives Award

Marilyn Graeber has been named the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow in the Round Top - Carmine High School. She received the highest score in a written examination which was given to all the senior girls. She was awarded a gold pin at the recent FHA meeting.

General Mills is the sponsor of the program designed to assist schools in building in young women a deeper appreciation and understanding in the American home. She will be entered in competition to name this states cadidate for the title of All American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will be considered for he runner-up in the state.

FHA Meets

On Tuesday the FHA members of the Round Top-Carmine High School met for their regular monthly meeting. All members were present. The president, Marilyn Graeber, was in charge assisted by Doris Dippel, secretary. The members discussed plans for their trip to the San Antonio Live-Stock show. The members voted to have a Mother-Daughter banquet on March 9. A suggestion was made that Miss Josephine Pazdell of Austin, state head of the FHA, be contacted to be guest speaker for the banquet. As there was no furher business, the meeting adjourned.

WMS Meets

The members of the Women's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. M. L. Zwernemann for their regular monthly meeting. Rev. A. T. Kluge and the following were present; Mrs. A. T. Kluge, Mrs. M. H. Batha, Mrs. M. G. Bathie, Mrs. I. A. Ullrich, Mrs. W. E. Kuhn, Mrs. A. E. Keilers, Mrs. Milton Albers, Mrs. Elmo Noak and the hostess. The meeting was opened by a scripture and prayer by Mrs. Zwernemann. The magazine quiz was chosen from the Women's Outlook and was discussed. Questions on the Book of Acts were asked and answered by Mrs. Kluge. A short business meeting was held with the secretary, Mrs. Ilo Ullrich, and Mrs. Milton Albers, in charge. Mrs. A. E. Keilers will be the next hostess. After the meeting was closed with the Lord's prayer, Mrs. Zwernemann served a delicious lunch.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marcellus became the proud parents of a seven pound seven ounce baby girl born at the St. Jude hospital in Brenham. She has been named Connie Lynn. Grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Kluge of here and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Marcellus of Emporia, Kansas.

Mrs. Marcellus has been making her home here with her parents for the last several weeks while Mr. Marcellus, who is employed by the Konyers Construction Company as chief accountant, was shipped to Kamloops, B. C. Canada. Mrs. Marcellus and daughter will stay in Houston with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gromatzky for several weeks, and then will fly to Kamloops to join her husband.

To Fat Stock Show

About 60 students together with their teachers attended the San Antonio Live Stock Show in San Antonio Saturday. The group left here Saturday morning at 7 o'clock aboard two school buses. They arrived back home Saturday evening at 9 after a most interesting day.

Have you tried a Want Ad?
Try a Want Ad for Results!