CONCORD LOCALS

To the News and Its Many Readers:

As I have not seen anything in print from this locality, will drop a few lines to see if it misses the waste basket.

Farmers are busy plowing corn and planting cotton and feed stuff, Irish potatoes came up to a good stand. We had a nice shower of rain Monday evening. Hope we get more in a day or so.

Mrs. Walter Levy and sons Walter Jr. and Ernest of near Carmine, Leslie Keng and family of Cummins Prairie, E. E. Keng and family of Giddings spent Sunday with Mrs. Wanda Ansohn and family.

Ad. Kipp and family of near Ledbetter spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Kipp's parents Mr. and Mrs. Will Hoesa.

August Christiansen celebrated his 80th birthday Wednesday April 15. He is still in good health and gets around just about as well as he did ten years ago.

Mr. Jackson and son of near McDade were in this vicinity last Thursday buying hogs.

Joe Newsome and little niece Marjorie Dodd and Ben Bohot of Concord and Mrs. J. M. Dodd of Beat Five, attended the funeral of Mack Newsome at Brownwood last week. Mr. Newsome was a long-time resident of Lee County. We sympathize with the family and loved ones.

A Pentecostal Sunday School has been organized at the Concord school house to be held every Sunday at 2:30 P. M. with Walter Helmer as Supt., and Carl Ansohn as secretary-treasurer. Mesdames Walter Helmer, G. E. Jaehne, Carl Ansohn and Miss Bernice Keng as teachers. Everybody is welcome to come and take part in this Sunday School as we are all God's children.

Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Newby left for their home in Yoakum Saturday after spending a week here holding a revival. Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Newby of Caldwell closed the revival Sunday night with a large crowd in attendance. The meeting was well attended every night and lots of good was done throughout the meeting, as it brought lots of us back near the path of righteousness. The Newbys are good in singing and their choir music was lovely. They are excellent speakers and deliver full gospel sermons. Rev. and Mrs. Newby of Caldwell will be with us Sunday night April 19. Service begins at 8 P. M. Everybody come out and worship with us as we are all serving the same God even though our way is a little different from yours. The following from a distance attended church here Sunday night: Richard Helmer and family, Dime Box, and daughter Miss Lola, Houston, Mrs. John Noack, Rudolph and Richard Noack and Mrs. Alvin Richter and baby, Fedor.

Wishing the News and its many readers much success, I am,
A Reader.
