

The Giddings News

January 28, 1921

DIME BOX LOCALS

Rev. Bourne of Giddings held services here Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Quite a number attended the service from Giddings. We are glad to announce that Rev. Bourne will be with us again on the first Sunday of next month.

Mr. Willie Mathis and Miss Lelfeste of near Lexington were visiting in our community last Saturday, for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hosea and family of Giddings were visiting relatives here last Sunday.

Mrs. W. G. Dement and daughter of Caldwell, and Mr. Seth Dement of Cleburne were visiting relatives in Dime Box for a few days this week.

Miss Viola Haudek spent Saturday and part of Sunday with home folks in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor accompanied by Mrs. Hester and children of Lexington spent a few hours at the home of Claud Phears Sunday afternoon.

T. N. Reat and Asa Moses went to Giddings on business Saturday.

Mr. Charlie Gertis and family of Deanville were Dime Box visitors Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ples Phears and children are spending a few days in Giddings this week.

Anyone who thought Dime Box dead should have been a witness to the "tacky party" at the home of Mr. John Burtschell Tuesday night of this week. There was no distinction between young and old on that night, for we all were young for a few hours. Snap and square dancing were in order, and under the inspiration of the music so well rendered by Mr. Adolf Frankie, on his harp, every one got the spirit of the occasion, and every one had a big time. Red lemonade and sandwiches were served for refreshments, and if they are tacky, then we certainly want some more tacky parties.

Herman and Frank Kuttler took away the prizes which we think they were certainly entitled to. All came and went laughing.