

The Giddings News
February 25, 1921

DIME BOX LOCALS.

Rev. Sadler of Caldwell preached here Sunday and was here again Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Knox and two grand-daughters, went to Giddings Monday.

Will Phears and family of Giddings spent Tuesday here.

Mrs. Lewis Koerck and little daughter are visiting relatives at Birch. George Koerck, wife and two boys of Deahville, came over Monday and returned Wednesday.

Miss Ruby Holmer, who is teaching school in the upper part of the county, spent the week end with home folks.

C. B. Hosen and family of Giddings spent Tuesday with Pios Phears and family. They were accompanied by Herbert Hosen, wife and baby, from Smithville, and Grover Brasels from Plainview.

William Sample and family have recently moved here from Thrall.

Mrs. Martha Eazel is having a nice bungalow built between T. N. Reut's home and the depot.

The men folks here are spending a part of their time roping goats, - getting in practice for the big goat-roping to be here the 28th of March.

Asa Moses, wife and baby went to Giddings Wednesday.

BORN to Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Hansen, Feb. 20th, an 8lb. girl.